

Dr. Doaa Abdelhamed Abdelazez

📍 15 May City, Cairo, Egypt

☎ +20 122 304 1527

✉ drdoaaabdelelamed123@gmail.com

Objective

Dedicated and passionate university professor with extensive academic training and practical experience in Arabic language and literature. Specialized in modern literary criticism and postmodern narrative studies. Seeking to contribute to Arabic language education for non-native speakers by applying academic expertise, cultural knowledge, and proven teaching skills.

Education

- Ph.D. in Arabic Literature, Helwan University – 2024

Thesis: Postmodern Narrative in Arabic and English: A Study of Selected Novels

- Pre-Doctoral Studies, Helwan University – 2021
- M.A. in Literary and Critical Studies, Helwan University – 2019

Graduated with Excellent Grade

Thesis: Reading the Aesthetics of Place in “Dubai, Cairo, and Cairo Women” by Nasser Iraq and “Three Ladies in Cairo” by Anne Edelstam

- Pre-Master’s Studies, Helwan University – 2014
- B.A. in Arabic Language and Literature, Helwan University – 2013

Professional Experience

- Lecturer, Department of Arabic Language, Faculty of Arts, Helwan University – Since 2015

- Assisted in teaching literary and language courses to undergraduate students
- Participated in curriculum development and academic seminars
- Supported student research and academic advising
- Contributed to academic events, cultural discussions, and student mentoring

Skills

- Native fluency in Arabic; strong command of English
- Strong background in Arabic literary criticism and cultural studies
- Excellent communication and presentation skills
- Skilled in teaching Arabic to diverse audiences, including non-native speakers
- Academic research and curriculum development

- Cultural sensitivity and international engagement

Languages

- Arabic: Native
- English: Fluent