

Ahmed Khater

Education

PH.D in linguistics and translation, specifically in corpus linguistics and translation, Faculty of Arts, Helwan University, 2016,

M.A. in Linguistics and Translation, specifically in legal translation, Faculty of Arts, Ain-Shams University, 2003,

B.A. in English language and literature, Faculty of Arts, Ain-Shams University, 1991.

Research

Corpus Linguistics and Translation, Discourse analysis and Corpus Linguistics, Stylistics and Corpus Linguistics

Community Service (seminars - webinars - workshops)

The consultant for the blind library for the blind library at the central library, Helwan University.

Arranged 3 conferences on the use of assistive technology by people with visual disability at the central library, Helwan University, and gave a number of lectures and presentation at various academic and community-based organizations on accessibility and assistive technology for people with visual disability include: Cairo University, the American University in Cairo, Arab Academy for Maritime Transport, Ministry of Communication and Information Technology and many other institutions inside and outside Egypt.