

CURRICULUM VITAE

GHADA RABIE MAHMOUD HASSAN ALROUBY

Research axis

Lecturer in Semiotics

Specialties: Semiotics, Linguistics, Discourse Analysis

Research area: semiotics applied to poetry

Research: Semiotics of the image, interdisciplinary poetry-cinema & poetry-painting, semiotics of free verse, cognitive semiotics

Contact details

Last Name: Rabie Mahmoud Hassan Alrouby

First Name: Ghada

Nationality: Egyptian

Current Position and Institution: Lecturer,
Cairo, Helwan University, Faculty of Arts, Department of French

Email Address: ghada.alrouby@yahoo.fr

Diplomas

2017: Doctorate of Arts, Helwan University, Highest Honors, Award for the Best Doctoral Thesis in Humanities and Social Sciences, awarded by Helwan University

Thesis Title:

"Semiotic Analysis of Discourse in the Poetry of Kateb Yacine's L'œuvre en Fragments and Mohammed Dib's L'ombre Gardienne"

2009: ICDL, International Computer Driving Licence, Syllabus Version 4.0

2008: ETS TOEFL IBT, Internet-Based Test, for the Test of English as a Foreign Language, Total Score 62

2001: Master of Arts, Honors

Thesis Title:

"Les Contemplations of Victor Hugo, Semiolinguistic Analysis"

1996: Intensive Training Diploma in French Teaching for Specific Purposes

1995: Continuing Education Diploma for Assistants and Lecturers, from the Bureau of Linguistic and Educational Cooperation (Civilization-Literature-Language)

1994: Master of Arts, Ain Shams University

Thesis Title:

"A Semiolinguistic Approach to Poetry Applied to Three Poems from Apollinaire's Collection of Alcools"

1992: Bachelor of Arts, with Distinction, Ain Shams University

Academic Functions

Since April 2017: Lecturer at the Faculty of Arts of Helwan, French Department

Since 2017: Lecturer at the Faculty of Arts of Helwan, French Department

From 1995 to 2006: Teaching assistant at the faculties of Fine Arts, Tourism and Hospitality & Artistic Pedagogy of Helwan

Awards

1996: First prize in the CCF poetry competition

2018: Prize for the best doctoral thesis in humanities and social sciences, awarded by the University of Helwan